

Lifelong Learning and Earning

Tuesday April 7, 2020, 1:15 pm

Register here and now for this free online workshop

Replacing cancelled side event for the Working Group on Ageing (OEWSA)

Easy access to skills-based education is essential for all of us to maximize our productivity and economic security throughout the life-span. The objective of this workshop is to advocate systemic changes in education that will empower us to work longer as well as to live longer.

Welcome

Ambassador Martin Garcia Moritan, Representative of Argentina to the UN, Chair of OEWSA

New Map for Life

Led by positive ageing advocates affiliated with the Pass It On Network, you who attend will be asked about your own life-span of learning and what is traditional in your country.

Innovations

With top influencers as presenters, four groups will hear about program innovations that support older workers and learners.

- Age-Friendly Universities Joann Montepare, PhD, Professor and Director of the Center for Research on Aging and Intergenerational Studies at Lasell University
- Public/Private/NGO Collaboration for Change Erica Dhar, AARP Director, Global Alliances, Main Representative to the UN
- Education Empowering Entrepreneurship Betsy Werley, Director of Network Expansion at Encore.Org
- Online Learning Kimberly (Kym) Harris, Director of Strategic Initiatives for Older Adult Technology Services (OATS) supporting digital learning for older adults through Senior Planet

Join the discussion with participants from around the world and explore new ways to weave learning with working. Everyone will receive handouts and a follow-up report.
